Re: Professional Recommendation for Mr. Shivan Alhussein

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this recommendation regarding Mr. Shivan Alhussein and his professional support in connection with contract drafting, legal documentation, and commercial agreement related matters.

At The Hilton Law Firm, PLLC, Mr. Alhussein assists with a broad range of contract and legal documentation matters, including business agreements, service agreements, operating agreements, non disclosure agreements, licensing arrangements, commercial contracts, and various forms of business related legal documentation. He plays an important role in helping coordinate documentation, gathering relevant information from clients, organizing legal materials, and supporting the overall drafting process.

Mr. Alhussein has demonstrated strong professionalism and reliability in working with clients on matters that often involve important business and legal considerations. He communicates clearly, follows up consistently, and helps ensure clients remain informed throughout the drafting and review process. His professional approach helps clients feel comfortable, supported, and confident that their matters are being handled carefully and efficiently.

In addition to maintaining strong client communication, Mr. Alhussein pays close attention to detail and works diligently to ensure important information is properly addressed and that legal documentation progresses in a timely and organized manner. His ability to manage moving parts and maintain responsiveness has contributed positively to our firm's operations.

I would confidently recommend Mr. Alhussein to businesses and entrepreneurs seeking support with contract drafting coordination, legal documentation matters, commercial agreements, and business related legal support services. Should additional information be required, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Shawuki G. Hilton
